Call to Community

We call to community with the reciting of our Healthy Relations Covenant.

We promise to . . .

Treat each other with kindness

Celebrate each other's spiritual growth

Listen deeply to others

Speak with courage and humility

Share the ministry of this congregation

Welcome

Linda King

Lighting the Chalice

"We light this chalice in deep respect for the mystery and holiness of life

With honor and gratitude for all who have gone before

With love and compassion for those who dwell among us

And with hope and faith for the generations to come."

Sharing of Joys and Sorrows

Do you, dear online attendant, have a joy or sorrow to be shared? Alert the tech host through chat that you'd like to speak and unmute yourself, and the tech host will hold a microphone to the computer speaker so that you can be heard through the PA system!

Sharing Generosity and Commitment

Those of you attending the service online can still join in! Visit the donation page on our website and drop a few dollars into the virtual basket.

Extinguishing the Chalice

“We extinguish this flame but not the light of truth, the warmth of community, or the fire of commitment. These we carry in our hearts until we are together again.”

– Elizabeth Selle Jones

NEXT WEEK at UUCY

Celebrating Blessings

While acknowledging how easy it is to feel demoralized, daunted and defeated these days, today's service will remind us of the role of blessings in our lives. It's not just about widening our view to see the gifts and blessings themselves; it's about widening our understanding of life. Pointing to blessings repairs our relationship with life, allowing us to see it as generous instead of indifferent or threatening. Susan Kaphammer shares this message drawn from the Soul Matters series.
